

Located in Madrid

Infor M3 Solution Architect

(m/f/div)

Your responsibilities

- Ownership of end-to-end solution implementation at our clients, including but not limited to Infor M3 ERP and all supporting/edge applications (e.g. IBP, d/EPM).
- Overall solution design, application configuration, testing and validation.
- Providing strong leadership to change control board to help control scope, priority, provide change request impact analysis and protect the solution stability and health.
- Providing high level solution design impact to leadership, drive to decisive decisions, and then guide delivery teams in understanding and building the solutions.
- Doing FIT/GAP analysis and disposition requirements appropriately as per business needs.
- Advance overall approach for workshop planning and execution.
- Build and/or assist with deployment strategy and cut over plans.
- Provide hands on support in functional areas as needed.

Your qualifications

- 5+ years of consulting experience with core Infor M3 ERP and at least 2+ years of experience with M3 cloud platform. (examples include but not limited to leading cross functional design workshops to gather user requirements, Identifying and establishing scope, and parameters of requirements analysis to define project impact, outcome criteria, developing functional design specifications, and metrics).
- At least 2+ years playing a M3 Solution Architect role.
- Experience with systems development lifecycle planning and/or Agile Methodologies, cost estimation/economics, requirements gathering.
- Functioning (Hands on) knowledge of core M3 application configuration (including, but not limited to org structure, master data, manufacturing, sales, order management, procurement, warehousing, logistics).
- Good English skills, written and spoken

We offer you these and other benefits

Agile
working methods

Training & development

Flexible working hours

Long-term employment

Centrally located office

IT with passion.

(OSP) Otto Group Solution Provider is an IT specialist for retail and logistics. Set up in 1991 as the software partner for the Otto Group, more than 250 employees are now responsible for stable, flexible, and innovative software solutions for manufacturers and retailers.

The Otto Group is a globally active group of retailers and retail-related service providers with around 51,800 employees and sales of 13.7 billion euros. Through 123 major companies, it has a presence in more than 30 countries in Europe, North and South America as well as Asia. With online sales of 7.9 billion euros, the Otto Group is one of the world's largest online retailers.

If you have any questions, please contact:
Otto Group Solution Provider (OSP) S.L. | Mariel Mantecas
Calle del Conde de Peñalver, 45, 5° Dcha. | 28006 Madrid
mariel.mantecas@ottogroup.com
osp.de/en/career-osp/